ABOUT THE MEN OF THE DEEPS - EST 1966 CAPE BRETON, N.S.

For sixty years, North America's only coal miners' chorus the Men of the Deeps have travelled the world as Canadian ambassadors, using song and storytelling to share what life was like for miners, their families and the communities they called home. Along the way, they have helped preserve Cape Breton's unique history, folklore, culture and talent.

The choir has performed throughout Canada and the United States, as well as in China and Kosovo, travelling from the Northwest Territories to the American South and the coal-mining communities of Appalachia, with stops everywhere from Florida to Las Vegas.

Today, the Men of the Deeps are much more than a singing group. They are a social institution, and the camaraderie among the members carries into every audience they meet. Clad in authentic mining coveralls and hard hats, they make an unforgettable entrance into a darkened concert hall, guided only by the lamps on their helmets.
